Our two new October exhibitions - Precious Treasures by Anna Schoolderman and Memories by Vicki Knudsen - will show portraits, studies and works generated from memories and overseas trips, via wall works, exhibits and journals.

At the end of October Sanctuary opens on the 28th; this is a group exhibition by Canterbury artists in aid of Artists Against Slavery, a NZ registered charity which raises money through the creative arts. Our last very successful exhibition for them was in 2015.

Christmas Function & exhibition opening at 3 pm, 2 December Belinda Weir's landscape paintings, followed by a meet the artist session. Then join us for a seasonal get together. There will be an exclusive 10% discount on gallery works for members at this function only.
